ARTICLE 2: MEMBERSHIP AND STANDING

2.1 Membership Requirements

2.1.1 Membership within RBCC is open to any individual who shows a commitment to cricket and the club's values.

2.1.2 Applicants for membership must agree with the rules and regulations set by RBCC, as well as the broader guidelines established by the EDCL.

2.1.3 To be admitted as a member, individuals must complete a formal application process and be endorsed by the Executive Committee.

2.1.4 Any member would lose their right of voting and nomination if they did not pay the membership fee last season but can stay in the club's social communication group and can participate in all events of the club.

2.2 Membership Fees and Duration

2.2.1 Membership fees are established annually by the Executive Committee and 50% of the fees must be deposited by the given date. Remaining 50% balance must be paid one week prior to the first game of RBCC (Regardless of the Team). Selectors will not select an unpaid member for any match.

2.2.2 Membership at RBCC is renewed on an annual basis, and members are informed of the renewal process in a timely manner.

2.2.3 In case of New Jersey launching, 50% or full payment must be paid before the deadline set up by the executive committee, which could be earlier than season start time.

2.2.4 Membership could be discussed with VP Finance if someone starts later in the season & it must be at least 50%.

2.2.5 Membership will be refunded if any available player did not play at least 3 matches and is not planning to play next season.

2.2.6 Membership will carry forward to next season if a member has not played at least 3 matches and intends to play next season.

2.3 Good Standing Criteria

2.3.1 A member is considered in good standing when all dues are current, and the member adheres to the principles and regulations of RBCC and the EDCL.

2.3.2 Good standing status is also contingent upon the active participation in club activities and a clean disciplinary record within the club.

2.3.3 Members must complete 6 Circus Volunteer Shifts personally to maintain good standing criteria. (Does not include shifts completed by the Friends and Families)

2.4 Withdrawal and Termination

2.4.1 Members may withdraw from RBCC at any time by providing written notice to the executive committee.

2.4.2 Termination of membership may result from non-compliance with RBCC's bylaws or any serious breach of EDCL's rules and regulations, after a thorough review process by the Disciplinary Committee and other Executive Committee.

2.4.3 Members facing possible termination will be granted an opportunity to present their case to the Committee before a final decision is made.

2.5 Reporting and Compliance

2.5.1 RBCC will maintain accurate and comprehensive records of its operations, including membership details, financial transactions, and meeting minutes.

2.5.2 The club will submit all required reports and documentation to the EDCL in accordance with their deadlines and standards.

2.5.3 RBCC commits to upholding the EDCL's objectives, rules, and policies in its conduct and competitive participation.

2.6 Ensuring Safe and Inclusive Environment

2.6.1 RBCC shall operate in a manner that prioritizes safety, inclusivity, and effectiveness in all club-related activities.

2.6.2 The club will follow established guidelines to provide a respectful and supportive environment for all members.

2.6.3 In case of major health issues/injuries, players need to provide a green signal from their doctor to be eligible to play.

2.6.4 RBCC will not cover any expense related to injuries/health issues during games/practices.

2.6.5 RBCC does not carry any health/personal property insurance.

ARTICLE 3: MEETINGS OF MEMBERS AND ELECTION

9.2.2 While RBCC acknowledges and respects the linguistic diversity of its members, the club adopts English as the primary language to ensure effective communication and inclusivity among all members, regardless of their linguistic background.

Article 10: Financial Control Policy

10.1 Purpose:

10.1.1 The Financial Control Policy of RBCC aims to ensure transparency, accountability, and responsible management of the club's financial resources.

10.1.2 This policy outlines the procedures and guidelines for financial transactions, record-keeping, and oversight to safeguard the club's funds and maintain the trust of its members and stakeholders.

10.2 Financial Transactions:

10. 2.1 All financial transactions, including sponsorship funds, membership fees, donations, and expenses, shall be conducted through approved channels and recorded accurately in the club's financial records.

10.2.2 Sponsorship funds received by RBCC, whether through E-transfer, cheque, or cash, shall be promptly deposited into the club's designated bank account.

10.2.3 The Executive Committee, with the assistance of club members, shall actively seek sponsorships to support the club's activities and initiatives, ensuring financial sustainability and growth.

10.3 Approval Process:

10.3.1 Any financial transaction involving the club's funds must be approved by the President and the Vice President of Finance.

10.3.2 The President and Vice President of Finance shall jointly review and authorize all expenditures, ensuring alignment with the club's budget and objectives.

10.3.3 No individual member or committee shall have the authority to initiate or approve financial transactions on behalf of the club without the explicit consent of the President and Vice President of Finance.

10.4 Record-Keeping:

10.4.1 RBCC shall maintain accurate and up-to-date financial records, including but not limited to income statements, balance sheets, and transaction logs.

10.4.2 All sponsorship agreements, invoices, receipts, and financial documents shall be systematically organized and retained for auditing and reporting purposes.

10.4.3 Members of RBCC shall have access to the club's financial records upon request, subject to reasonable confidentiality and privacy considerations.

10.5 Reporting and Transparency:

10.5.1 RBCC shall provide regular financial reports to its members, detailing income, expenses, and financial performance.

10.5.2 Financial reports shall be presented at general meetings or circulated electronically to members, ensuring transparency and accountability in the management of club finances.

10.5.3 Any discrepancies or irregularities in financial transactions shall be promptly investigated and addressed by the Executive Committee, with appropriate corrective actions implemented as necessary.

10.6 Review and Compliance:

10.6.1 The Financial Control Policy shall be reviewed periodically by the Executive Committee to assess its effectiveness and relevance.

10.6.2 Amendments or revisions to this policy may be proposed by the Executive Committee and shall require approval by a majority vote of the committee members.

10.6.3 All members of RBCC are expected to comply with this Financial Control Policy and support its objectives in maintaining the financial integrity of the club.

10.7 Payment Schedule and Timing:

10.7.1 All players intending to participate in the season must pay a 50% deposit by the given date.

10.7.2 Remaining 50% balance must be paid one week prior to the first game of RBCC (Regardless of the Team).

10.7.3 Team selections will be finalized considering the payment status.

10.7.4 Team members facing financial hardship must notify VP Finance (with a copy to the president) at least 10 days before the initial payment due date.

10.7.5 Failure to provide written notification within this timeframe may result in delay for inclusion for the season.

Article 11: Sponsorship Policy

11.1. Introduction

RBCC relies on sponsorship to support its activities and initiatives, enabling the club to provide quality programs and experiences for its members. This sponsorship policy outlines the framework for engaging sponsors and the benefits they receive in return for their support.

11.2. Sponsorship Tiers and Benefits

11.2.1. RBCC offers different sponsorship tiers, each providing varying levels of benefits to sponsors.
