GAME RULES

1. 10 players per team along with 2 substitutes. There is no age or gender bar for participation.

2. The players must show up no later than 15 minutes before their scheduled game. During the preceding game's inning break, both the captains must be situated by the field and be prepared for the toss.

4. The bowling team will only have 20 minutes in the group stages and 26 minutes in the semi-finals and finals to finish their allotted overs. The batting team will receive an additional 1 run for each ball that remains if the bowling team fails to keep up with the same. The skipper must ensure that the over rate is under control.

5. An inning will be 6 overs. The semi-finals and finals will consist of 8 overs.

6. In group stage 1 bowler will be allowed one over each, teams will be needing 6 bowlers in the group stage. For Semi-Finals and Finals 2 bowlers can bowl 2 overs and the rest will be allowed 1 over.

7. If the bowler touches the wickets under any circumstances during their delivery stride, the ball will be deemed no ball. For no-ball and wide balls, an additional ball will be bowled and an additional run will be awarded.

8. One short ball above the shoulder height (bouncer) will be allowed in an over and will be given as a warning (warning can also come from a wide ball above the head) The second short ball above the shoulder height will be given a no-ball.

9. A full toss ball above the waist will also be deemed a no-ball.

10. A chuck bowling style will result in a no ball after a warning has been given. The warning will be given only if the batting team appeals to the umpires, and the umpires verify.

11. Two warnings will be given for two beamers in an over. If a third is bowled, the bowler will be ejected and will not be permitted to bowl if the opposing team requests it. The new bowler will replace and complete that over which would be considered as completing their own (ONE) over.

12. Apart from the extra run for the no-ball (Overstepping and Height), the next ball will be a free-hit for the batsman. The batsman cannot be judged out except run-out on the same free-hit ball.

13. If there is a fielder directly behind the stumps (sight screen area), or if a fielder moves into the batsman's line of sight as the bowler is bowling, it will be considered a no-ball.

14. Only 3 fielders are allowed to field on the boundary line beyond the line that will be indicated.

15. Single batsman is not permitted to bat. (2 batsmen are needed to be on the crease).

16. Any 8 out of 10 players squad, can bat and field/bowl.

17. If a batsman moves away before the bowler bowls, it is a dead ball.

18. The boundary will be indicated on the field. The wall behind the bowler is where the boundary will be. The boundary will start from when the wall starts sloping upwards. A line will be marked to indicate the same.

19. If the ball hits ceiling, net or the side walls and crosses the boundary then it will be 4(no matter it bounced before the boundary line or not). If the ball crosses the boundary without touching anything then it would be a 6.

20. If the ball hits the dugout (even if it comes back into the field), directly onto the white boards or leaves the playing area, the batting side will be awarded two runs.

21. Leg byes and byes are permitted only if shot is offered.

22. The winning team receives two points, while the losing team receives zero.

23. In case of a tie in the league stage, points will be equally distributed.

24. A super over will be played if there is a tie in the knockout stages (Semi-Finals and Final). Another super over will be played if the super over is tied.

25. The game shall be declared a no-result if neither team is present at the end of the allotted 15 minutes after the scheduled start time.

26. There are no LBWs in this tournament.

27. Overthrows will be allowed.

28. A wicket keeper can be placed by either team. Other fielders are not allowed to wear anything that will help them field the ball. Only wicket keepers are permitted to use wicket keeping gloves.
